

Lundbreck Falls Claim Lives of Tony Nicholas and Gladys Knowles

Sunday Evening Ride of Four Young Coleman People
Came to Most Tragic Ending at Famous Beauty Spot

Presence of Mind of "Jeff" Knowles Saves Lives of Blairmore Girl and Himself from Drowning--Tony Nicholas' Body Not Recovered

With scarcely a moment's warning, the lives of two well-known young people were taken in a tragic accident at Lundbreck Falls at 8:30 on Sunday evening, the dead being Tony Nicholas, aged 21 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nicholas, and Gladys Irene Knowles, aged 17 year and 11 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Knowles. The survivors of the 60-foot plunge of a Ford touring car into the turbulent water below the falls are Geoffrey Knowles and Lillian Parsons.

The party left Coleman at about 7 o'clock on Sunday evening, proceeding as far as Cowley, where they turned to come back to Coleman. Arriving at the falls about 8:30, "Jeff" Knowles drove the car to the flat ground between the bridge and the falls, on the south side, which terminates in a precipitous drop to the river. Realizing that he had driven too close to the brink, he attempted to put the engine in reverse. It failed to respond, and he then attempted to steer the car forward, turning the steering wheel in the direction required, but the wheels instead turned in the opposite direction, with the result that the car went sideways over the brink of the canyon, the car dropping into the river with the four wheels uppermost.

Knowles, attempting to extricate himself, felt an opening with his feet, backed out of his under-water prison, and came to the surface about fifteen feet from the car. In a flash he saw the head of his sister Gladys bob up on the surface, at the same time he saw Nicholas stand up in the water very close to him, but in his efforts to reach the girls to render assistance, he lost sight of Nicholas. Gladys was apparently caught in the car, and the force of the water and his own efforts extricated her, but there was no sign of life. Miss Parsons, he thinks must have been thrown clear of the car, as she was hanging on to it when he reached it.

A young couple, of Frank, who had been sitting in a car near the falls, saw the party drive up, and Miss Florence Davis, in an interview with The Journal, stated that she noticed it was going terribly near to the edge, and before she realized what was happening, saw they were having difficulty with the car, and the next moment it slid sideways over the edge. Jack Griffiths, the other occupant of the car, quickly recovering from the horror of the spectacle they had witnessed, rushed away to the nearest farm house to secure ropes, while Miss Davis gave the alarm to cars passing. Providentially there happened to be returning to his hotel at Lundbreck Cliff Madden, who knows the river well, and who is of powerful build.

He immediately dashed down the series of natural steps in the face of the rock leading to a spot very close to where the car was in the water, and waded out to help Knowles bring his sister to land, later assisting Miss Parsons to the shore, who was becoming exhausted from her exposure in the icy water.

By this time other cars had arrived and Mr. Knowles was summoned from Hillcrest. Artificial respiration failed to produce any sign of life on Miss Parsons, and realizing the futility of further efforts, the undertaker was summoned from Blairmore, whence the body was conveyed to Ferguson's funeral home.

The tragic news very quickly spread to the towns in the Crow's Nest Pass, but realizing that nothing could be done that night, the search for Nicholas was given up till early next morning, when Constables Maddison and Bailey of the A.P.P. searched for several miles on each bank of the river without success. Mr. Knowles, father of Gladys and "Jeff", proceeded to the scene of the fall, and with hooks and cables lowered from the cliff, managed to turn the car to an upright position, but no sign of Nicholas was discovered.

Meanwhile dragging operations have been carried on under the supervision of the police, a raft having been used to search the ledges and pools which abound in the river. The car in which the young people travelled had been borrowed from a brother-in-law of Tony Nicholas. Jeff Knowles, who was driving, stated that the brakes appeared to be in working order, but the steering gear failed to function at the crucial moment.

Those on the scene immediately following the crash state that Jeff Knowles acted with commendable presence of mind, and Cliff Madden of Lundbreck acted with remarkable promptitude in the emergency. Miss Parsons when rescued was in a hysterical condition, and it is doubtful part could have held out very much longer, as she was suffering from nervous shock.

The inquest was opened at Blairmore on Monday evening, when the jury under Dr. Olivia viewed the body of Miss Knowles, and adjourned till Tuesday, June 4th, at 8:30.

The jury were: R. Gray, foreman; Walter Scott, W. Lord, L. Morgan, E. M. Thompson, F. R. Keer. The right wrist of Gladys Knowles was broken, but no medical evidence was given by Dr. Rose, of Hillcrest, this being deferred till the date of the adjourned inquest.

The funeral of Miss Knowles was held yesterday afternoon, and prior to the service in St. Paul's United Church, a service was held by the Pythian Sisters at the home. The pall bearers were B. Bell, J. Janostak, H. Jones, A. Duffield, H. Tibergen and J. Kapolka.

Theasket was covered with floral tributes from many friends, and many were deeply touched at the service both in the church and at the graveside. The deceased had lived here since birth, and her sudden death in so tragic a manner touched the hearts of everybody in the community, sympathy with the bereaved family being expressed by all.

EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY

Charlie Stevenson, formerly of Coleman, writes from Lethbridge: "Would you please put a little announcement in The Journal expressing my sincere sympathy for the families bereaved by the disaster at Lundbreck Falls. I feel very sorry at what happened, and I am sure Coleman feels the loss of these young people. I must send my sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Knowles and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas in their hour of sorrow."—Charles Stevenson.

Ben Bernie to Open Royal York

Top, The Royal York Hotel as it stands out, even from the air. Below, Ben Bernie and his orchestra

"I hope you like it." To millions of radio listeners, that announcement, coming from Ben Bernie, "the young maestro", is a fulfilled promise of symphonic dance music of extraordinary quality. Though Ben Bernie cannot possibly have appeared in person before the many millions for whom he is the favorite of radio broadcasters, his name and the music for which it stands have become household words throughout the world, emblematic of the best in symphonic jazz orchestration. It is for that reason that Ben Bernie and his World-Famous Orchestra have been chosen above all others to open the new Royal York Hotel in Toronto, an engagement of three weeks at the highest salary ever paid by a hotel.

For the past seven years Ben Bernie and his orchestra have been featured at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York, one of the best and most widely known hostesses of the Metropolis. The Ben Bernie music made the Roosevelt Grill the favorite rendezvous of dance lovers, young and old. Ben Bernie and his Orchestra are also exclusive Brunswick recording artists and are featured by that company wherever phonograph records are played.

Ben Bernie's music is distinguished for the ingratiating rhythm of his orchestrations and the symphonic overtones applied to syncopation. It is pre-eminent among the "new jazz" orchestras for the quality of its music. Ben Bernie's orchestrations are arranged with the greatest of care and artistry, and are played by an aggregation of artists each of whom is an outstanding master of his medium.

Unrivalled in its versatility, the Ben Bernie Orchestra offers, in addition to the familiar popular tunes, symphonic jazz renditions of classical symphonies. The Ben Bernie arrangement of "Scheherazade" presents in synopsized form one of the most colorful of modern symphonies, striking a balance between the irresponsible gaiety of jazz and the austere solemnity of the classical, and appealing with equal force to lovers of the old and the new in music.

COMMUNITY CARNIVAL PLANNED, SKATING RINK —DATES, JULY 20-22

Every Live-Wire Business Man Is Boosting and Selling Tickets to Make It Successful Event.

There is a deficit on the operation of the community rink which the carnival committee is determined to wipe out by staging a monster carnival on Saturday and Monday, July 20 and 22. A large number of good boosters for the cause are already doing their part in selling tickets for the carnival at 25c each, and the holders of the lucky numbers will receive respectively an electric Orthophonic value at $155.00, and a Chesterfield suite valued at $375.00.

The list of boosters to date who are selling tickets includes H. C. McBurney, J. H. Boulton, J. Houghton, W. Bell, Roland Crayford, Frank Celi, Frank Graham Sr., J. Ruxton, Ed. Lediou, H. Snowden, J. M. Allan, Tom Brennan, Geo. Pattinson, A. M. Morrison, J. A. McDonald, Oliver Barringham, Tom Holstead, Harry W. Clark. The ticket selling campaign is being handled by H. T. Halliwell, and

Empire Day Observed West Coleman School

Message of King and Queen Heard by Young Pupils in Education
Dept. Broadcast.

Empire Day was suitably observed by the children of the Cameron school, West Coleman. A short programme was given by the children. This was followed by the main feature of the day—the "tuning in" on the first province-wide radio broadcast by the department of education for school children. This opportunity, the first in the history of the Alberta schools, was made possible by the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Moores of West Coleman. Mr. Moores loaned and installed his radio. After the broadcast, Mr. Moores tuned in at the right time and the listeners were able to hear distinctly even the message of the King and Queen. By three cheers and a "tiger" the children showed that they appreciated Mr. and Mrs. Moores' efforts to establish a beginning, at least, of the use of radios in schools.

DIRECT ACTION IS NEEDED TO TEACH LESSON TO OFFENDERS.

People Absolutely Defying By-Laws
Regarding Dumping
Refuse.

"It's an absolute crime the way people are dumping tin cans and other refuse," is the way one man expressed his complaint to The Journal, while others have voiced complaints in equally emphatic manner. Notices have been posted warning people against this offence, and it is time that action is taken by Chief Houghton and the council to see that town by-laws are observed.

An absolute disregard to others is shown by some uncultured and sloppy people who deserve to be fined for the offences complained of. They have had sufficient warning—the next move is up to the authorities, and people seeing others dumping refuse in other than the authorized places should assist in bringing them to time. Action is not only remedial, but make offenders sit up and take notice.

To "Bob" Barnes has been delegated the duty of being the official spreader of good cheer to the Calgary party. He is well qualified to fulfill this pleasant duty, both in the quality of the stories he can tell and the natural ease with which he can meet either lords or dukes or sons of guns—they're all the same to him when it comes to making them feel at home.

The secretary has received 200 copies of the newly published route maps of the Red Trail, giving special publicity to the Crow's Nest Pass, and these would prove very useful to send to friends or acquaintances who may be influenced in taking a trip over this route. Members may have same on application.

A tournament was held on Friday last by the tennis club, which provided a day's good sport for those taking part. The score indicates that Mrs. Lindoe and M. McCallum secured the highest number of points, with Miss Burns and A. E. Graham second.

Barnes Circus Coming!

The all new production of the A. G. Barnes Circus is coming to Blairmore on Tuesday, June 11th.

Advertising agents representing A. G. Barnes Circus have been posting pictorial circus bills in this vicinity announcing the coming of this excellent show, and advertisements will be found in our columns this week. The management of the A. G. Barnes Circus announces the following features this year.

The all new spectacle, entitled "Aladin and the Parade of Gold," in which approximately 1,000 people take part, including the Chinese beauty, Lola Lee Chong; the two Mastodons, Tuko and The Mighty Tuko; Kitchikard's equestrian midgits, fourteen tiny horsemen from Bavaria; San Marcus, the $16,000 equine star; the zebra round-up, with the largest herd in captivity in America; and many other novel features and performances given by American and foreign artists, also animals from every part of the world.

Two performances are given daily—the afternoon show starting at 2 o'clock, and the night performance at 8 o'clock. The doors are open one hour previous for the inspection of the zoo, and for the children to see the two mammoth beasts which require two specially constructed railway cars for their transportation.

Great Soldier's Warning Against War

One of the gravest errors some pacifists make, says Toronto Saturday Night, is to suppose that all soldiers of military ability favor war. This is far from being true and the fact is illustrated by the great British general, Field Marshal Sir William Robertson, who has on many occasions raised his voice against war as an institution for the settlement of international disputes.

Quite recently he has spoken again, pointing out that the desire to avoid another war is common to most countries. It would be strange if it were not so, he says, inasmuch as the last war cost the world ten million lives or double the number lost in all wars of the preceding 1200 years put together. It also cost not less than $350,000,000,000, a sum that the human mind is hardly competent to conceive, to say nothing of an incalculable total of distress, sorrow and injury. Its failure as a solution of international dispute is demonstrable from the fact that it left behind grievances and resentments that can not be eradicated within the lifetime of most adults now living.

Yet though war is condemned by the intelligent men of all the nations who twenty years ago thought of it lightly as an inevitable future development, not devoid of possible advantages, preparations go on much as they did prior to 1914. Sir William Robertson is genuinely alarmed over the tendency to increasing competition in armaments. All the great powers, with (we are glad to note), the exception of Great Britain, are today spending more money on armed forces than they spent five years ago. Even with a reduced scale of expenditure Great Britain is practically compelled to spend $1,275,000,000, irrespective of the contributions of India and other parts of the Empire, from the sheer necessity of fulfilling her military responsibilities in various parts of the world and protecting sea communications. France and Italy today have approximately as many men under arms as in 1914. Germany is complaining of her defenceless position, and if armaments are piled up by her neighbors, must soon if it be given permission to arm also. Many smaller nations of Europe are on a military footing and maintaining a threatening attitude toward each other. The United States feels that future security demands a vast additional naval expenditure.

What does all this madness portend? Peace is a game which must play if it is to be maintained. Let us hope that the craze for armament falls of its own weight before the nations get at each other's throats again. The only vestige of a silver lining lies in the fact that machinery for the isolation and prevention of wars now exists, a factor never previously known in the world's history; but it is plain that the miracle which will convert the human mass from madness to sanity cannot be performed with a single gesture.

What Britain Has Done

Has Led the World in Disarmament Says Stanley Baldwin

"Years ago seamen sailed from Plymouth to discover a new world. We are going to rediscover a new moral world, which is a very much harder task," said Premier Stanley Baldwin, speaking at Plymouth, during his campaign tour of western England.

"We have led the way to disarmament," the premier said. "The fleet today is half the size it was in 1913. That is practical disarmament and no nation in the world can come anywhere near that, yet there are Englishmen who say we are lagging behind."

"My hope is that the new government will be able to conclude an agreement with the United States which will lift the whole problem of disarmament to a new plane of action and not talk."

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Fall Heavily On the Woman Who Is Run Down—Thin Blood the Trouble

To the woman who has her household to do and her family to attend to, illness is almost a calamity. Many a woman keeps on with her household duties when she is feeling ready to drop. Her head aches, she may be poor blood—thin, watery blood, and she badly needs the health help that only Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can give her. The rich, red blood which comes through the use of these pills promptly restores anemic sufferers to good health. Among the thousands who have found new health through the use of this medicine is Mrs. John W. Macdonald, Cardigan, P.E.I., who says: "I can most strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was so run down in health that I was unable to do my household alone. My husband thought I would never get better, as I had tried different kinds of medicine, with no benefit whatever. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I did, and to my joy I found they were just the thing I needed. I took six boxes of the pills and found myself restored to my old-time health and strength. I try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate resistance that will keep you well and strong. A box from the nearest drug store and begin this treatment now; or you can get the medicine in a 60-cent box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Tea Of Old England

For some reason Great Britain alone among Western nations has popularized the use of tea. It has become the national beverage. The "beer of old England" has given place to the "tea of old England" and in its sentimental associations a "cup of tea" can vie with a "mug of ale." It is not too much to say that the British fought the war on tea.

It Will Relieve a Cold—Colds are the commonest ailments of mankind, and if neglected may lead to serious conditions. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will relieve the bronchial passages of inflammation speedily and thoroughly and will strengthen them against subsequent attack. And as it eases the inflammation it will usually stop the cough because it allays the irritation in the throat. Try it and prove it.

Only Two Members Left

Marshal Joffre and Count Togo Wear Order Of Merit

The recent death of Marshal Foch, writes "Looker-On" in the London Daily Chronicle, leaves only one soldier entitled to wear the Order of Merit—his fellow-countryman, Marshal Joffre. The only other foreign member of this Order is the veteran Count Togo of Japan. At present there is no British soldier wearing the Order of Merit. Marshal Foch's death, too, leaves only one foreign Field-Marshal in our army. This is King Albert, of the Belgians, upon whom his Majesty King George conferred this rank eight years ago.

C.N.R. Summer Schedules

Canadian National Announces Changes In The Schedules For Summer Months

"The Confederation," running on the Canadian National Railways between Toronto and Vancouver, by way of Winnipeg, Brandon, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Jasper, was again in operation on May 19, replacing "The National," which runs between Toronto and Winnipeg. The first westbound "Confederation" left Toronto on Sunday, May 19, and another set of equipment left Winnipeg on the same day. The west-bound train will reach Edmonton daily at 10 a.m., leaving 20 minutes later, arriving at Jasper at 6:20 p.m., Mountain Time, and leaving at 5:40 Pacific Time. Eastbound, the train will reach Jasper at 6:40 a.m., Pacific Time, and leave at 8:05 a.m., Mountain Time; arriving at Edmonton at 3:20 p.m., and leaving at 3:40.

Other time table changes announced by the National system include: Calgary-Edmonton—Train 13, will leave Calgary at 8 a.m., instead of 7:50, effective May 20. It will connect at Camrose with train 25 from Big Valley, Stettler and other points, and at Tofield with the Confederation for points east. Effective May 20, train 25 will leave Calgary at 7 a.m., instead of 7:30, also connecting at Camrose and at Tofield. Edmonton-Alliance—Will leave at 4:50 p.m., instead of 4:55, effective May 21.

Hanna-Wardlow—Will leave at 9:45 a.m. instead of 9 a.m., arriving at Wardlow half an hour earlier; effective May 21. In the opposite direction the train will leave Wardlow at the usual time but will arrive at Hanna three quarters of an hour earlier.

Hanna-Warden-Mirror—Will leave at 7 a.m., instead of 7:45, effective May 20, arriving at Warden at noon instead of 12:45, and at Mirror at 3:45 instead of 4:15.

Beach trains—will leave Edmonton for Alberta Beach and Lac Ste. Anne at 2 p.m., Saturdays, from June 29 to August 31 inclusive; at 6:30 p.m. Saturdays ("Moonlight") July 10 to August 17 inclusive; at 2 p.m. Wednesdays, July 3 to August 28 inclusive. Campers' specials will leave Edmonton for Vabamun, Falls and Seba Beach, Saturdays at 1:30 p.m., from June 29 to August 31 inclusive.

Soviets Changing Policy

Will Proceed Along Different Lines Regarding Religious Practices

Removal of constitutional restrictions on religious practices is soon to be proposed to the Soviet congress. A. Bykoff, president of the Council of People's Commissars, told delegates to the congress they would soon be invited to vote on such an amendment to the constitution. The decrees fighting religion had proved to bring harm as well as benefit, he said. President Bykoff added that congress would be called upon to ratify a constitutional amendment providing for separation of church and state, church and schools, and granting all citizens the right to religious practice as well as anti-religious propaganda.

It appears from the speech of the president that the Soviet was not to abandon its attempts to discredit religions, but simply to proceed, removing the stimulus of persecution. The constitution set up on the establishment of Soviet socialist republics, forbade the practice of any religion.

Harvest Kelp From Sea Floor

Weed Is Being Tested For Value As Cattle Fodder

Seaweed is now believed to be an extremely valuable food for cattle and other live stock, and now a Los Angeles inventor comes forward with a machine for gathering it from the bottom of the sea. His machine, which was recently demonstrated in California, is mounted on a scow. An endless belt of spiked crosspieces runs from the surface of the scow to the harbor bottom, where blades tear off the kelp. The weeds catch upon the moving crosspieces and are pulled to the scow, where they are piled up like hay to dry.

The kelp is then ground and fed to farm animals with their hay and grain. It may also be used as a fertilizer, and from it can be extracted large quantities of iodine and potassium. Tests are now being made to determine its relative value as cattle fodder.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

One of the most pleasing sights in the vicinity of this office is the bright coat of paint being applied to the United church. Now—if the school board would do likewise, the outlook would be still further improved.

United States enforcement and prohibition agents have had so little success in stemming the sale of liquor that they are now getting angry with Canada for allowing the export of liquor. The consumption of hard liquor no doubt is diminishing in every country, but it is with the consent of the people more than by prohibitory laws.

Victoria Day ran well up to town. Wind and dust storms followed several days of ideal weather. Just because it was a holiday, the weather man intervened to remind us that his influence is not to be lightly regarded. It started somewhere around Montanay Lake, nearly 200 miles west.

There is a story of two men on their way east. Passing through the wind hit Cranbrook in its travels with a terrible gust that placed look like the Sahara desert on a windy day, driving everybody to cover. It proceeded on its violent way, making all the towns through the Crows Nest Pass wonder what was coming. What it was like on the wind-swept prairie one shudders to think of.

One should at least give credit for one fine Victoria Day. Last year the only drawback was that the mosquitoes were very voracious.

'Tis foolish to try and be a good fellow with everybody else and neglect those nearest to you. And it doesn't get you anywhere. Something like Senator Borah told a prominent Canadian in discussing the tariff—he liked Canada as a neighbor, but he liked the United States better. Self-interest naturally begins right at home. Think of your own hometown as the finest place on earth in which to live and work, and to make it as near the ideal place possible. Above all, do not allow an inferiority complex to take possession of your view of town affairs.

The great sport these days is talking of oil. You hear it everywhere. You take a ride on the train, and you hear it there too, from the time you step on till you step off, no matter if it be a ten mile or a 500 mile journey. A fellow says: "I bought 100 shares of A. P. Con. at 95 and sold it for 65," while another will tell you he made big money in selling leases "I bought 500 shares of T.N.T. and it blew up before I had even a chance to unload," says a sad-faced looking individual. Another will tell you that he had a hunch to sell his stock on a rising market, but his broker advised him to hang on, with the result that he subsequently sold out at a loss. With mild wrath he confides to you that the broker doesn't know a darned thing more about the time to sell than the greenest greenhorn. Something like the tipsters at the races, who will give you a list of sure things to place your money on, but which do not come in for even a place. So it goes! Everybody thinking they are going to get rich quick in buying oil shares or mining stocks, trying to get something for nothing, and finding out that money is not made so easily as that.

Even the waiters on the dining cars will become enthusiastic about it, and have to restrain themselves from imparting their knowledge to you while you are trying to eat and enjoy the scenery as you roll along except some of the older birds who have become wise from experience.

That well-known herd of goats which Joe Stephenson recently moved from town to the hillside pasture at Sentinel are guilty of base deception on unsuspecting tourists. Autos come along, the occupants spy the goats, and out they jump with cameras. The goats look at the tourists with as much curiosity as they do the goats, shutters click and the tourists go congratulating themselves in having got such a fine picture of Rocky Mountain goats.

YOUTHFUL COMPETITORS BRING HONOR TO PASS TOWNS

That the towns of the Crows Nest Pass compare very favorably with other parts of the province is evidenced in many ways. In the field of sports and athletics many local boys and girls have won distinction in wider fields, and the latest young people to bring further honors, in the musical world, are Frances Linnville, of Blairmore, winner of the silver medal in the Junior Grade Piano Classes at the Alberta Musical Festival at Edmonton, also the Edmonton Musicians Shield for highest marks awarded in any instrumental junior grade, and Verduin Leigh, of Cowley, winner of the silver medal in the junior violin competitions. The latter is a pupil of Mr. McSer, Hillcrest; Miss Linnville is a pupil of Miss Madeline Chardon.

The rector of St. Alban's church informs The Journal that a large portion of the grant formerly made to the Diocese of Calgary by English organizations will be discontinued. When one hears so much of our prosperity and also takes into consideration that this diocese has been in existence for forty years, it is high time it was standing on its own feet. The trouble is that too many consider a miserable pittance will keep a church functioning, instead of realizing they have a duty and responsibility and that is to support the church to which they are indebted. It applies to all churches. Men will squander money on non-essentials, money will be spent on many things, but when it comes to Sunday school or church offerings, the contributions would make one blush for shame. And some that can afford it don't even give a cent. No wonder the churches have to be continually begging! There are too many four-flushers when it comes to finding out what they do for the churches to which they may belong.

OLIVER RECEIVED A NASTY CRACK

A flying rock from an auto driving ahead of him on the Blairmore road gave Oliver Barringham, taxi driver, a dirty blow last Thursday evening. It made a fair sized hole in the windshield, and the flying glass made his face appear as if he had been trying to chase a squirrel through a keg of nails. His father, Frank, came along just after it happened, and found Oliver with a gory face trying to stem the tide. Fortunately it did not knock out his nice new piece of dental bridge work which had been put in a few days previously, for which he was thankful, and after sticking some adhesive tape on the cuts, Oliver resumed his place at his usual stand.

EARLY RESIDENTS SAY FAREWELL

Mr. and Mrs. T. Parry Leaving For The Old Land.

Tom Parry, who has resided here for the last 20 years, and Mrs. Parry, are leaving shortly for an extended visit to the haunts of their childhood days among the Berwyn Hills of Wales.

Tom is well-known by all old-timers of this district, to whom he addresses a farewell:

Good-bye old friends, good-bye to all. I'm bidding good-bye to Coleman. Of many years' acquaintance; I've worked and joked with most of you,

And our trays have been far and few. Good-bye old friends, good-bye to all. I'm bidding good-bye to Coleman.

NO SUPPORT AT BELLEVUE FOR PLAYERS

"The Wishing Cap," the tuncful operetta staged by St. Alban's W. A. at Bellevue last Thursday, did not meet with the support anticipated, in fact it was most disappointing, only 30 people being present, the receipts being $14.00, so that the expenses exceeded the revenue very considerably. The children nevertheless played their parts exceptionally well, but playing to an empty theatre hardly dampened everybody's enthusiasm, and they gave a sigh of relief when it was over.

West Canadian Collieries to Donate Swimming Pool Site

The following from the report of the regular meeting of Blairmore town council last week is of interest:

"The tentative plan is to build a swimming pool coming in the neighborhood of 7,000 immediately west of the Greenhill hotel. The edifice is to have a large marble tablet at the entrance, and inscribed thereon will be the names of the Blairmore soldiers who gave their lives in the Great War.

The West Canadian Collieries, through their progressive general manager, G. A. Visser, who always ready to get behind any project for the good of the community, have agreed to donate the land gratis and to bear the cost of all plans and specifications. They also agree to supply heat from their central heating plant at a nominal cost of $5.00 a day. This will cover the cost of heating fresh water daily for the pool, water from the shower baths and heat for the dressing rooms.

The town of Blairmore is asked to subscribe $4,000, the Elks Lodge $2,000, and the Independent Order Daughters of the Empire $1,000.

William Wilson Killed by Cave-in at Mine

Warned Partner to Jump But Unable to Escape Falling Rock Himself

A cave-in at room 165 of the International mine on Monday afternoon resulted in the death of William Wilson, miner of several years standing. Four men had been working on a pillar and inspection by fire bosses had reported the place safe for working in, and the men had no fears for their safety. With out warning, rock began to come down from the slope higher up, and Wilson shouted to his partner, Andrew Halluk, to jump. He narrowly escaped death, his legs being cut by falling rock. It is reported that a piece of rock rolled down and knocked the props from where Wilson was working, and he was trapped as the roof fell.

Immediately efforts were made to clear away the rock, which was very difficult owing to further caving, and it was not till almost midnight that Wilson's body was recovered.

He is well known here, and was secretary of the Knights of Pythias. He leaves a wife and one child.

The following verdict was given by the jury at the inquest into the death of William Wilson, aged 32, killed on May 28 at the International mine: That deceased came to his death at about 3 p. m. in pillar 165 by a fall of rock, of which no warning was given. We attach no blame to anybody—S. Moores, foreman; W. L. Rippon, H. T. Halliwell, James Ford, W. Heibeen, W. Dibble.

The evidence of A. Hallek, Steve Penny and Pete Barachuk, all working in the same pillar, showed that not the slightest warning was given, and Hallek escaped the same fate by a very narrow margin, by jumping out of the path of the falling rock. No sound was heard from Wilson, not even a warning shout, and the position of his body when extricated denoted that he had plumed him right on the sheet iron which he and Hallek were laying. R. M. Greenhalgh and D. V. Roberts, fire bosses, gave evidence of their inspection visits, and of finding everything in good shape. The body was first partially uncovered at about 9 p. m. by the fire bosses, but it was not till after 10 p. m. that it was extricated and brought to the surface.

Medical testimony by Dr. Por den indicated that death must have been instantaneous, the body having been severely crushed, though no bones were broken, with the exception of a fractured collar bone.

D. Gillespie, representing the miners union, urged that the telephone be extended further into this district of the mine. Though in this case it would not have helped to save life, yet there might be occasions when closer telephone communication would be of vital importance to notify officials at the mine head promptly of accidents.

Supt. McLeod, representing the company, stated that since November the telephone had been extended a mile and an emergency station for first aid fitted up at York Creek. M. Johnson, district inspector of mines, examined the witnesses on behalf of the department of mines. F. J. Turner of Bellevue was the coroner.

News recently received from Ernest F. Gare, formerly publisher of The Journal, states that with a friend he has formed a company to manufacture and sell the "Auto print," the most simple and cheapest machine on the market doing mimeograph work. He is making his headquarters in Saskatchewan, and has an agent in Regina looking after Southern Saskatchewan, while he proposes appointing agents for Alberta.

Closes Fiscal Year With More Money Left Over Than Ever Before

Alberta closed the fiscal year ended March 31, with more money left over in the provincial treasury in excess of expenditures than ever before in the history of the province, $1,517,571 being the exact amount, according to an announcement made by Provincial Treasurer Hon. R. G. Reid. The surplus for the previous fiscal period, ended March 31, 1928, was $279,763, covering 15 months, because of the change of the fiscal year dates adopted last year.

Italy Has Ambitious Road Building Program

Fifty Thousand Men To Construct Motor Highways

Because Premier Benito Mussolini has ordered it, Italy soon is to embark on the most ambitious road building programme any modern European state has attempted—perhaps the largest since the famous road builders of ancient Rome took their art into Britain. Within five years every corner of the peninsula will be accessible to the motorist. In all 40,000 miles of new motor highways are to be constructed. Fifty thousand men are to be engaged in working out the programme.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EVERY MOTHER

The child in the home is a never-failing source of joy, but, at the same time a never-failing responsibility to the fond mother. It is not infrequently happens that minor ailments of the child distress and puzzle her. She does not know just what to do, yet feels them not serious enough to warrant calling in the doctor. At just such times as these it is found that Baby's Own Tablets are the mother's greatest help and friend.

Most childhood ailments arise in the digestive tract—the bowels become clogged and the stomach sour. Baby's Own Tablets are a never-failing remedy for this condition. They are a mild but thorough laxative and through their action on the stomach and bowels they banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever; allay the pain accompanying the coming of teeth and promote health-giving sleep. Concerning them Mrs. W. Jennings Mackay, Ont., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets and think so highly of them that I would not be without them. Please send me your little booklet on the care of children."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Four Hundred Years Ago

Luther's Catechism Is Still Being Used In Lutheran Schools

While text books change often and few trulies today are a decade old, one yet in use can celebrate its four hundredth anniversary with the Lutheran World Congress, June 25 to July 31. "Luther's Catechism" was written four hundred years ago, and still is used in Lutheran schools. The Lutheran church is the largest Protestant church in the world. Its membership is estimated from 75,000,000 to 80,000,000, mostly in Northern Europe and America. The three books translated into most languages in the world are: The Bible, in about 80 languages; "Luther's Catechism," in 137; "Pilgrim's Progress," in 107. The most translated hymn is Luther's "A Mighty Fortress," in 150.

A Munificent Gift

Mr. W. H. Askew, Of Scotland, Donates Large Sum To Aid British Colonization In Canada

The Department of Colonization and Development of the Canadian Pacific Railway announces a munificent gift on the part of Mr. W. H. Askew, of Ladykirk, Scotland, to the cause of British colonization in Canada. Mr. Askew, who is a gentleman of means and well known in Scotland for his broad public spirit, has provided ten thousand dollars to enable suitable families from the border regions of England and Scotland to emigrate to Canada and engage in agricultural work.

Forty of these families are now on their way from Great Britain, and their departure has received wide publicity in the British press on account of the original circumstances under which these families are being moved.

The fact that Mr. Askew has provided ten thousand dollars makes possible, under the provisions of the Empire Settlement Act, an advance of a further ten thousand dollars for the forwarding of suitable British families to Canada. The Act in question authorizes the Secretary of State to co-operate with private organizations in formulating and carrying out schemes for affording joint assistance to suitable persons in Great Britain, who intend to settle in any of the Overseas Dominions. It is quite possible, therefore, that as a result of Mr. Askew's decision to assist prospective British colonists in the manner mentioned, three hundred families may be enabled to come forward to Canada. The number depends on the precise amount advanced to each particular family.

At Mr. Askew's request the Department of Colonization and Development, Canadian Pacific Railway, has entered into an agreement with the Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs for the recruiting, placement in agricultural occupation and all general administrative work connected with the scheme.

The families which will arrive during the next week-end will be at once distributed on arrival in Canada in placement already being made. Twenty-five families having been allocated to the Canada Colonists' Association, a subsidiary of the Department of Colonization and Development; others will occupy new cottages erected by the Colonization Construction Branch of the Canadian Pacific, and the remainder on farms prepared by the Canadian Pacific under the agreement made last fall with the Overseas Settlement Committee.

Asked for his personal comment on this new scheme Colonel J. S. Dennis, C.M.G., Chief Commissioner of the Department of Colonization and Development, said: "I have no hesitation, whatever, in saying that Mr. Askew's magnificent action is a strong reminder that the whole matter of the movement of British colonists to Canada calls for special efforts on the part of all organizations and individuals who are in a position to speed up the important task in question. As is well known we have always concentrated our efforts on the movement of the largest possible number of British settlers to Canada, spending large sums in that connection, but due to conditions which have existed in the last few years and the administrative difficulties which seem to arise, now and again, under the apparently necessary numerous regulations which have been observed, results have been disappointing. The Askew scheme, however, as it is sure to be widely known in the future, marks a step forward in the progress of British colonization in Canada, and we are greatly pleased, of course, that Mr. Askew should have seen fit to ask us to join in this proposal, which is now eliciting much commendation in Great Britain, and will continue to reflect the greatest credit and satisfaction to its sponsor."

Explanations and Comments

The Princes Fear the Influence of Jeremiah and Seek His Death, verse 1.—Jeremiah was held a prisoner in the guard-house at Jerusalem during its siege by the Babylonians. He could still address those around him, and he prophesied the fall of the city and advised surrender. The effect of his words was to weaken the courage and purpose of the fighting power of the people. The princes denounced him to the king, whose words weakened the defense of the city. "Let this man be put to death," said the weak king, and with this gesture of helplessness acknowledged that he could not withstand them; they could do with Jeremiah as they would. "He was afraid of Jeremiah, afraid of God, afraid of his princes, afraid of his enemies, afraid even to be himself."—Emily Huntley.

"Zealotism miserably vacillated between the two extremes of the counsel of surrender and the truculent noble's advice to resist to the last gasp. Like most weak men, he was afraid to do either, and he was that he was compelled by the force of circumstances to do wrong. So he drifted and drifted, and at last was smashed to fragments on the rocks, as all men are who do not keep a steady eye on the compass. The winds are good servants but had masters."—Alexander MacLaren.

SUPPORTING CAST

Probably no star has had such an astounding array of screen talent around him as Meighan has in "The Racket." Marie Prevost, herself a chief supporting role divided with Louis Wolheim, one of the greatest character actors on stage or screen. Then comes George Stone, the sewer rat in "Seventh Heaven"; Sam De Grasse of "King of Kings" fame; John Darrow, rising young juvenile; "Skeets" Gallagher, famous Broadway star and fast making a name for himself in pictures; Lee Moran, veteran vaudeville and screen comedian; Lucian Prival and Henry Sedley, prominent villain characters; Tony Mario, also portrayed of crook types, and G. Pat Collins who appeared in the Broadway presentation of the play—At the Palace on Monday next.

Bellevue School Fine Show-ing at School Sports

The Bellevue school cleaned up for the third time at the annual school sports meet.

Miss Costick captured first place in all events that she entered. James Radford proved himself a runner of no mean ability when he ran away with the quarter and one mile races. Harold Key and his partner divided pole vault honors.

The people of Bellevue are proud of the showing that they made and are confident that with someone to train the Bellevue pupils in athletics they would do much better.

The COUPE . . . . .

an example of the fine Coachwork of the Ford Closed Models

THE art of the master designer is evident in the smart, low lines and graceful contour of the Ford Coupe emphasized by two-tone color harmonies.

Set against these body colors are the full nickeled radiator, headlights and door handles—smart touches of bright metal that add a great deal to the attractiveness of the car. Running boards and crown fenders are heavy and substantial.

Cushions are deep and easy. Upholstery is rich and durable. Newly designed steel spoke wheels carry out the impression of an all round fleet, sturdy car.

The same quality is evident in the mechanical simplicity of the engine, transmission and all mechanical parts. In appearance and performance, the new Ford brings you everything you want or need in a modern automobile.
